

I remember a lady coming into our Hospice Shoppe on a Thursday. She was in desperate need for an outfit for her son's upcoming Saturday wedding.

I found a beautiful champagne colour evening jacket and skirt set with crystal buttons. This was truly meant just for her as it fit her to a tee. Shoes, evening purse and jewellery completed the look for just under $100.

Needless to say, she was over the moon excited. She couldn't believe the prices and found it all at The Hospice Shoppe. She left with a huge smile on her face and I was just thrilled that she would look beautiful on her son's special day.

It is so rewarding to help people find special treasures at great prices and it's a win-win as all the proceeds fund care at Bobby's Hospice.
